THE RESORT

Salamander Resort & Spa is found in the charming and historic small town of Middleburg, Virginia. The charismatic Forbes Five-Star resort features 168 guestrooms and suites all with scenic views of the countryside. This lavish resort rests on 340-acres framed by the Blue Ridge Mountains, lush vineyards, and horse farms. Truly dedicated to health and wellness, a 23,000-square-foot spa presents 14 treatment rooms and a private outdoor courtyard with a heated pool. In addition, Salamander has built one of the finest equestrian facilities and programs in the country with 25 on-site acres dedicated to riding and a 14,000-square-foot stable. The culinary program also does not disappoint with the rustic Harrimans Virginia Piedmont Grill, a multi-experience cooking studio, well-appointed wine bar, and jovial billiards room. Also offering zip lining, tennis, nature hikes, archery, and an abundant amount of other outdoor activities, the adventures are endless.

From the early 1900s, Middleburg began welcoming visitors who participated in foxhunting and steeple chasing. The village soon earned a reputation as the “Nation’s Horse and Hunt Capital”, attracting prominent visitors from across the U.S. Middleburg is the home of the National Sporting Library research center for horse and field sports and its recently opened art gallery and museum.

The Middleburg Historic District, comprising the 19th-century center of town, is listed on the National Register of Historic Places, as is the Red Fox Inn, the oldest building in town, and billed as the oldest continually operated inn in the U.S.

Middleburg was recognized in 2008 for its historic preservation efforts by being designated a Preserve America Community by then-First Lady Laura Bush.
